

Dear Sirs,

I am very concerned about the possibility of 'PLC', power line communications, as an RFI source. This has the possibility of seriously disrupting the amateur radio hobby. Please look into this subject carefully. Thank you for your attention.